Only a small group of dedicated runners braved the elements on a day which saw the temperature at 12°, the wind chill temperature at minus 34° and the course drifting. Jim Shrader, winner this fall of the Catskill, Turkey Trot and Pearl Harbor Day races, came in first in the 3 mile, followed by Albany HS runner Paul Gentile. Only four veteran marathoners tried the 6 mile, headed by Ted Biok, first over 40 at the Jenny 20 earlier this fall, and Don Wilken, first over 30 at Oneonta.

Our best wishes to Bill Ghiorse and his family, who are leaving the area. And a Happy New Year to all.
