Jim Shrader, 24 hours after breaking the State Univ. at Albany 2-mile record by more than 20 seconds, ran away with the 3 mile run in the best time ever for a HMRRC race. The Boston Marathon entrants divided into those who ran hard: Boyle, Bowles and Bick, and Thomas (who knocked 30 seconds off his personal best); and those who didn't: Childs, Wilken, Mal McConnell.

The 3 mile was preceded by a one mile jog around the lake featuring everyone from Jim Shrader to some who never realized a mile was such a long distance! There was a large turnout of men, women and children of all ages. We hope to have this kind of event regularly.
