

HMRRC's Hall of Fame Committee is Looking for Candidates for the 2021 Hall of Fame!

HMRRC's Hall of Fame (HOF) honors individuals who have earned extraordinary distinction as a member of HMRRC. If you know an exceptional current or former HMRRC member who is a leader in the local running community either as a competitive runner or as a volunteer, now is the time to recommend that member for consideration as a candidate for the 2021 HOF. The guidelines used to select a candidate are listed below. You can find information on the past awardees here:

https://www.hmrrc.com/application/files/5416/0959/1273/Current_Hall_of_Fame_members010121.pdf.

Recommendations should include the candidate's name and detailed supporting information (based on the HOF criteria) and be sent to HMRRC HOF Committee, c/o Cathy Sliwinski, Chairperson csliwin@nycap.rr.com, or 11 Victoria Way, Albany 12209 by August 15th.

The HOF Committee will review and vote on candidates and notify HMRRC membership of the results in September.

The criteria to select a candidate include (but are not limited to):

1. The nominee's historical significance to the HMRRC.
2. Performance as a competitive runner in club races.
3. Noteworthy performance as a competitive runner at the local, regional, national, or international level.
4. Service to the club as an elected officer.
5. Service to the club as a staff member or writer for the Pacesetter over a period of time.
6. Service to the club or the larger running community as a race director.
7. Service, over an extended period of years, to multiple club functions as a volunteer.
8. Service, over an extended period of years, to local running functions.
9. Service to the club or larger running community as a mentor, coach, or educator of local runners.
10. Service to the larger running community as an officer of local, regional, national, or international running organizations.
